

Song of July

Fredrika Stahl

Splashing water
Refreshing breeze
Sun kissed hair
Scratched knees
Salty lips
And sandy shoes
Tickly ants
And cut-off pants
Freckled nose
Big straw hat
Morning swim
And afternoon nap
Camp fire
Fireflies
Buckets, spades
Sandy eyes

I know
My mind is there to stay
I know, I know

I know
My mind is there to stay
I know, I know

Sticky sunscreen
Dusty road
Barking dogs
And unknissed frogs
Grilled sausage
Rusty bikes
And clicking cameras
And weekend hikes
Water melon
Water fight
And rocking boat
And floating kites
Daisy chains
Blueberry stains
Climbing trees
And stinging bees

I know
My mind is there to stay
I know, I know
I know
My mind is there to stay

As I watch the autumn rain wash you away
I just know my mind is there to stay
I know my mind is there to stay

Lemon juice
Strawberry jam
Bright nights
Mosquito bites
Mosquito bites

Every night
Mosquito bites
Ay ay
Singing cricket
Melting ice-cream
Hardened feet
Air-dried sheet
Bumble bees
And knee-high grass
Blooming fields
Forever last

I know
My mind is there to stay
I know, I know
I know
My mind is there to stay

As I watch the autumn rain wash you away
I just know my mind is there to stay

I know
My mind is there to stay
Hmm, I know
I know
My mind is there to stay
I know, I know
