

Masters of Light

Freedom Call

From fear I deny
What I've seen in the night
Darkness around me
A Grimm's tale or the truth without fail
A phobia is rising now

All singing...oh
No more we fight, no more we'll die

I stare in the eye of a storm that is near
Enclosing darkness
An unseen wall, a dungeon of soul
Arising out of silence...now

Demons riding the storm of evil
A world at war, the devil's home

A blaze in the distance a magical sign
In flames arising
Masters of light, heroes of might
The march of giants has begun

Forces unite fighting the evil
Masters of light tear down the wall

Freedom for all
Here we are, the masters of the light
Darkness will fall
Here we are, here we are
All singing...

Oh, a hymn for revolution
Oh, the tunes of war are calling

Master, master, masters of the light
Masters of the light

A lake full of lies
Under blood red skies
A war that leads to nowhere
The spirit of hope is reigning the land
The march of giants has begun

Forces unite fighting the evil
Masters of light tear down the wall

Freedom for all
Here we are, the masters of the light
Darkness will fall
Here we are all singing

Oh, a hymn for revolution
Oh, the tunes of war are calling
No more we fight, no more we'll die

Here we are, the masters of the light

Oh, a hymn for revolution
Oh, the tunes of war are calling
No more we fight, no more we'll die

Here we are, the masters of the light
Oh, a hymn for revolution
Oh, the tunes of war are calling
No more we fight, no more we'll die
