

Warriors

Freedom Call

At night, high up in the heavens we fight Faster than lightning we strike
Like fires that rip through the night Surrounded by light

Raging thunder in the skies
Time has come to sacrifice

We are warriors,
born from the light
An army for freedom,
defenders of life
Warriors,
euphoria will rise Returning from darkness
we bury all lies

The knights,
outcast and lost in the skies Returning to heaven denied Louder than thunder we ride
Ready to strike

Call for us and you will survive
Follow us to paradise

[Chorus]

Here we are,
the warriors of light
Here we are,
we came from the night
Here we are,
the warriors of light
Here we are, euphoria will rise.
