

My Fight

From Ashes to New

How do you live when every finger's pointing in your face
How do you give your heart to something only you embrace
How do you put your mind to something that you love
When you were growing up everybody told you that you weren't good enough
Good enough would work for me
Instead of love you hurt me deep
Broke my trust and watched me bleed
Ignored my pleas and squashed my dreams
Everything hiding underneath is coming out for you to see
The screams kept hidden down beneath
A broken are spirit finally free

Get up, Get up, Get up,
I'ma show you everything I've got inside
I Won't Give up, Give up,
Never backing down this is my fight

Everything we do in life has got to be for something
I won't go down without a fight no I won't die for nothing
You held me under too long I see a coming end
Take back your hand, your not my friend, to me your fucking dead.
All the things you did and do showed me the colors inside you,
I now know all your hidden truths, if I were you shit I'd lie to It's my turn now, I'll burn you down, nowhere to run and hide for you
It's tried and true, and I'll get through I'll watch your spirit die in you.

Get up, Get up, Get up,
I'ma show you everything I've got inside
I Won't Give up, Give up,
Never backing down this is my fight
Every word you said, had you thinking in your head, you'd leave me here for dead,
But I'm Alive
Get up, Get up, Get up,
I'ma show you everything I've got inside

You brought me down, in ways I can't imagine
You made me believe, IT'S TRUE
(It's what I've got inside, this is my fight)

I hate the way you drag me down
I'm not afraid cuz this ends now

Get up, Get up, Get up,
I'ma show you everything I've got inside
I Won't Give up, Give up,
Never backing down this is my fight
Every word you said, had you thinking in your head, you'd leave me here for
dead,
But I'm Alive
Get up, Get up, Get up,
I'ma show you everything I've got inside
