

Nothing

From Ashes to New

You make me die die die
And I'm walking dead
Because you lie lie lie
To my face like that
And when we try try try
To make amends
I feel nothing, nothing
Nothing!

Used to feel alive, used to be alive
Used to feel something down deep inside
And took too long to realize
That all you do is just feed me lies
Now I see where we arrived
We're on a path where we collide
No going back, no redesign
Cuz you're made of glass and I can see inside

You love hate, you love hate
You love hating me
You love hate, you love hate
You love hating me
If hates what you feel
You made this thing real

You make me die die die
And I'm walking dead
Because you lie lie lie
To my face like that
And when we try try try
To make amends
I feel nothing, nothing
Nothing!

I lived my life just for the dream
But you couldn't be what you swore to me
Now there's nothing more to see
No more to do no more to be
You used to be the core of me
Now you're an insecurity
The part of me that I buried deep
The only part that I'd burn of me

You love hate, you love hate
You love hating me
You love hate, you love hate
You love hating me
If hates what you feel

To my face like that

You make me die die die
To my face like that

I feel nothing because of you
I feel nothing I'm torn in two
I feel nothing because of you

You make me die
And I'm walking dead
Because you lie
To my face like that
And when we try
To make amends
I feel nothing

You make me die die die
And I'm walking dead
To my face like that
To make amends
I feel nothing, nothing
Nothing!

You make me die die die
And I'm walking dead
To my face like that
Nothing!
