

On My Own

From Ashes to New

If I believe I'm halfway there before I even try
You've seen me falling down, now watch me as I rise
Even the darkest nights will end
But like the sun, I'll rise again
These ups and downs that lie ahead
Can't touch me now as I ascend
Ever since this climb began
There's no one there to guide my hand
Out from the crowd, I try to stand
And I can make it

On my own, I can make it
On my own, I will face it
And I am never letting go
I can make it on my own, own
I can make it on my own, own
I can make it on my own

Silently the ghost of you is fading from my eyes
And these, these ties that bind are broken, now I rise
They try to bring me down 'cause they're below me
Acting like they even know me
Who I am and where I'm going
They're just mad they can't control me
My whole life I took things slowly
But now I know that they can't hold me
From my chance my one and only
'Cause I can make it

On my own, I can make it
On my own, I will face it
And I am never letting go
I can make it on my own

I had to fall a thousand times
To learn to live, to be alive
But the darkest paths can lead to light

If I believe I'm halfway there before I even try
You've seen me falling down now watch me rise

On my own, I can make it
On my own, I will face it
And I am never letting go
I can make it on my own, own
I can make it on my own, own
I can make it on my own
