

The Men Behind the Men Behind

From Dawn To Fall

take this life and shape it like the way that it was meant to be load this shell with tracer hopes and watch the trail it's gonna leave a living breathing amplifier blasting out defiance that no one else can hear
no one else can hear
a living breathing amplifier blasting out defiance that no one

I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind [the men behind the men]
I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind the men

the aims have lost their meaning but the means can never change the task has gone forever, but the force just rearranged

I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind [the men behind the men]
I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind the men behind
I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind the men behind
I always pledge allegiance, I swear obedience all day long to t he men behind the men

[I swear obedience]
