

Black-Eyed

From Our Hands

god oh my god trying the best that i can my friend i need this being odd is my only recess

i don't mind
i don't mind anything because i don't care
i don't care
don't care about anyone because

I'm black-eyed
at first sight
so keep your good intentions

calm is all that i need don't need no happy faces I'm bad companion my friend pure hell to get along with this is my social suicide so there's more room for you to all you social lovers god bless every hour i was graced to spend alone i am not a coward starving for attention mind yourself and let me be you think I'm feeling numb so sure that you could help me no need for favours son you should have noticed that I'm

at first sight
don't waste your time to change it black-eyed from tha bottom of my heart so sick of all the faces around me
