Mutilate

Oh, we will stagger We will stagger On and on A simple habit Jump from one foot To the other On and on Chained to the laws Oh, let's go further Used to reeling On and on A plain reflex If mistaken Never lose faith Steering on Oh, we will stagger Lose our bearings On and on Yes, there can be no Obvious answers As we move on, and on and on, We must tremble Lame and humble On and on Behind the stars Beneath the walls Below the ground Before the storm... Below the ground Before the storm... Chained to the laws Chained to the laws Oh, useless anger There's no answer To be found We will stagger We will falter Stained and blackened On and on Chained to the laws...

Chained to the laws... Chained to the laws... You'd better know the laws... Front 242
