```
Here, under your bed I wait for you
'Cause I know, I know you want me to
Skeleton in your closet was never so true
You're so very pretty when you're turning blue
When I hear the sound of your voice
You leave me no choice
Be myself, wanna be myself
I'm feeling lucky tonight
I know your mother thinks I'm society's parasite
Well you can leave your mother home
You know how much I like to be alone
And when I hear the sound of her voice
She leaves me no choice
Be myself, wanna be myself
Be myself, wanna be myself
Be myself, wanna be myself
Here, under your dress I wait for you
'Cause I know, I know you want me to
When I hear the sound of her voice
She leaves me no choice
Be myself, wanna be myself
Why can't you go, let me be myself
```
