

The Triumph of God Frost

Frozen Dawn

When the sky turns into dark
The moon shrouds the woods
And when the fog starts to spawn
You arise on thy black throne

Come to freeze the rings of fire
Come to bring the eerie frost

Come.... god of frost
Come.... god of ice
Dark overlord
You will rule....
You will reign...
Come.... god of frost
Come.... god of ice

The blizzard strikes with frenzy might
The rain scourges the steppe
A glaze of ice coats the cliffs
Winter unleashes the storm

Come to freeze the rings of fire
Come to bring the eerie frost

Come.... god of frost
Come.... god of ice
Master of void
You will rule....
You will reign...
Come.... god of frost
Come.... god of ice

I am the storm, I am the ice
I am the freezing wrath
I am the winds, I am the snow
I am the coldest death
