

Submit to the painful seize of death
As you recant the passage of your life
Fall to the darkened realms of suffering
Twice as far down as the view from the sky

Descend to the timeworn vaults unseen
Where dismal souls shriek in torment
Behold an enormous charnel tomb
Where ancient caskets lay shrouded
In sinister decay

Thundering as it rises
A great monolith of death
Ornamented in bones and rotting flesh

An epitaph in a glowing eerie light
A foul blue cold - the manifestation of death
Obscured in phosphorescent mist

Illuminated by the souls of the damned
For aeons unseen glistening in darkness
Beyond its gates - awaits your salvation
You shall be redeemed in a putrid embrace

Nex Momentum

Cursed and forlorn
To wander black horizons
Through a great polyandrion
Float chilling eternal whispers

Caskets creep open in morbid horror
Desiccated fingers rip into flesh
The wisdom of infernal darkness
Crushing your mortal remains

Submit to the painful seize of death
As you recant the passage of your life
Fall to the darkened realms of suffering
Twice as far down as the view from the sky

Descend to the timeworn vaults unseen
Where dismal souls shriek in torment
Behold an enormous charnel tomb
