

Finale

Funeral Party

I always knew we would end up just like this
So pour me one last drink with a final kiss
Things always end up in a miss
I'd love to tell you oh lets reminisce

And all the words that we couldn't say
In the backyards where we used to stay
The parents are on the way home again
So sorry that it had to end

And now we're right back where we started from
We're never leavin no we just begun
Supplies are endless but we just have none
You sleep your whole life and you called it fun

So wake up kid realize your life
We're movin closer to your demise
Your getting out of familiar ways
So world and starts and it's gonna stay

And we're singin ohhh
You are young, so am I
Set my heads and we can try
You are young and so am I
We'll do all we want and take it while we lie, while we lie

And now your hairs is grey and your shoes are worn
And the books you've read with the pages torn
You found one person you never knew
It told you what to look forward to

And when you woke up in your sad demise
You're movin closer to the end of your life

We're getting out of your way
We're movin out at the end of day

Cause we are the voices under the tracks
Drawing you forward, pushing you back (10x)
