

Postcards of Persuasion

Funeral Party

Our sample is pure, it makes it known
Your ways of loving, your heart overthrown
And you've come around with no question at all
Of my appearance, whether short or tall

And I love you for what I can
I give you my life
It's nothing more than you say I am
It's nothing more than you say

It's in the words you wrote on the postcards
It's in the lines I never read
It's in the words you wrote on the postcards
It's in the lines I never read

It's all the same
In the end there's only one to blame
And my heart, it will never be saved
I can live without you
And I do, yeah, I do

And I've just done a billion
You're loving no one but yourself
You live a lie, you know it now
You're giving up and no one knows about your whereabouts

You wear out loud, you wear out loud
Oh, but I know and I will keep it from you
Oh yeah, I know and I will keep it from you
Oh, from you, oh
From you, oh

It's in the words you wrote on the postcards
It's in the lines I never read
It's in the words you wrote on the postcards
With your bleeding heart and my cheating heart

These are the words you wrote on the postcards
These are the lines I never read
These are the words you wrote on the postcards
On the postcards, on the postcards

On the post cards of life
Cards of life
I was caught in a lie, I was caught
