Aye,
Its crazy how mum thinks, she don't really care about some things.
I tell her that I'm out but she don't need to know who I'm seeing.
We spend time on the weekend, just me and my wife out eating.
It's been a while now I've fallen in love, now i fall like I'm stuck way down in the deep end.

See I met her parents, they're nice and they gave me clearance.
And they don't mind me there but when it comes to mine I'm always fearing.
So we walked through the door, mums on the couch her eyes look in awe.
She didn't ask her name she asked wheres she from.
I stepped in and said hold on..

I really tried to fight it but my feelings were too strong.
So I tried o hide but its been way too long.
You ain't gunna like this, please don't kick me out my home..

No need for panics, getting angry and screaming manics.
Yeah her parents are from Jamaica but shes always been a crystal palace.
Can I at least introduce her and you know that shes my future.
Treating me like a loser, things have changed
Yeah I met her parents, we had diner with family sharing.
And they don't mind me there but when it comes to mine I'm always fearing.
So we walked through the door, mums on the couch her eyes looking for more.
She looked at my girl from the top to the floor.
I stepped in and said once more..

I really tried to fight it but my feelings were too strong.
So I tried o hide but its been way too long.
