

Change Somebody

Futuristic

Ain't no point in doing this if I ain't striving to be better
Changing people's lives and bringing opposites together
The benefit you get is something tastier than cheddar, that's a plus
Plus the game will eat you up if you let it
A slave to my emotions, tryna keep it copasetic
Drink a lot when I get mad but I just hope I won't regret it
Sending texts to my ex, the next day forget that I said it
She responded know I read it, gotta tell her that I meant it
Nothin' augmented the bars spittin' is always authentic
The closet is all vintage, the jacket is raw denim
If this don't kick in the door, I hope that [?]
A prisoner to the system
They thumbprinted a nigga, I'm dumb with it
Did he come with it? Just havin' fun with it
Or I'm done with it, enough writtens to run with it
'Til 3061
Hope your son's listening
Your son's son witness, I jump in it
I'm about to

Change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I'm trying to change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I ain't doing not a thing if I don't come and change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I shouldn't be in the game if I'm not tryna change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah

A lot of secrets I should take to my grave
I lay on the page
Hoping someone could take them away
They label what I say, and they'll change a day, they could change a week
They could change a year, they could change everything
Yeah, because we all been in a tough place
We need love, there's enough hate
Enough space that jealousy and shade should fade
Been feelin' I'm here to tell you everything is okay
Yeah, I had a gun loaded to my temple
My heartbeat sound like a instrumental
I really felt that all my friends was fickle
Sat on a bridge and let the tears dribble
Down the side of my face, they hit the pavement, evaporated
Nobody past to save them only my imagination
How I saw the future the way that my mom and dad raised them
They would've been sad, hated themselves and been mad
Angry now I'm just an angel of earth and all I wanna do is-

Change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I'm tryna change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I ain't doing not a thing if I don't come and change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
I shouldn't be in the game if I'm not trying to change somebody
Change somebody, oh yeah
