

Do Too Much

Futuristic

I ain't gotta, do nothing
Everyday I, wake up
I ain't gotta, prove nothing
I already, made it
I ain't gotta, do nothing
I just got my, cake up
I ain't gotta, say nothing
I already, made it
I ain't gotta do too much
I ain't gotta do too much, no
I ain't gotta do too much

If you step against us then you lose too much
I'm improving at the crib 'cause I screw too much
Yeah you don't see me in the suit too much
But I'm all about business I move too much
I'm really not fragile or at the museum
But the young man probably something you can't touch
I just hit the groove too much
Bumpin' tunes in my room while I [?] too much
With your boo-hoo, don't really fuck with you that much
Made a call get jumped like [?] double dutch
Damn, got it like a zoo too much
I'm a beast, I'm a dog you a fool too much
I'm a really nice guy almost all of the time
But my man's by my side got the [?] too much
If you can't stand me than sit your ass down
This is my family and this is my town

Make the money, don't let it make me
Crazy with the influence, everything free
Hot in Arizona so I keep it 100
If it hit 1-20 then I'm flying to the beach
Make my own clothes and they all say "sheesh"
Write my own flows and they all say "sheesh"
Hit Ryan with a text if you really gotta flex
Get my money right back if the contract breach, oh
Got a check coming I know it, oh
Why I hit the bank I ain't notice, oh
Working on a craft been focused, oh
Writing all these raps by the ocean, oh
Plus I got my girl dropping songs too
If you ain't down with the squad that's wrong crew
If you trying to get plug for the kicks and you not on a guest list then you talking to the wrong dudes

I ain't gotta, do nothing
Everyday I, wake up
I ain't gotta, prove nothing
I already, made it
I ain't gotta, do nothing
I just got my, cake up
I ain't gotta, say nothing
I already, made it
I ain't gotta do too much
I ain't gotta do too much, no
I ain't gotta do too much
I ain't gotta do too much, no
I ain't gotta do too much
I ain't gotta do too much, no
