Futuristic

Yeah, yuh
2020 and I got a vision
I know, yuh, yuh, yeah, yow

Let me get back to spittin', they askin' what happened to that Futuristic
I made a massive decision, I caught me some cribs, now I'm actually livin'
You don't get money, you're nothing, you're not even happy, get out of my business
I'ma backhand everybody that's talkin' about me like Zack playin' Tennis
Mmm, fuck off, I got a leg, so I duck off, I been 'round the world, I snuck off
But now I'm back and it's over for all of you niggas who thought I was finished
Will talk with the quickness until you will see me in all of your dreams
Used to be the comedian, now watch me go viral again and again and you back on my peepee, huh?
Silly, ain't it? How the picture painted by the media ruled everything
I must have missed it, was tripping on gas out in Italy, I was just gettin' some brain
I got them plugs in my corner, if I snap a finger, they do what I say
All these influencers still broke as fuck, got a regular job and work minimum wage, haha
I'm 'bout to take it back over, I father these rappers, I came with a stroller
They hatin', I'm hangin' 'em like they were due back in 2015 when I gave 'em a poster
Look at these lames and these posers is playing the game, I'ma yank the controller
And strangle and choke 'em and dangle the rope 'til their ankles is swollen then break 'em and fold 'em

Ayy, still the greatest
Way richer than was ever famous
What's the reason for shit you makin'?
It don't matter, we don't ever play it, little bitch

Most underrated, I took me a break, now I'm back and I'm sorry for y'all
Thought you was makin' the plays, now the coach gotta tell you he callin' it off
I been the greatest, I paved them a way and they know that I started it off
Aw man, I'm sorry for y'all, I'm really sorry for y'all

I see you switchin' the character, all of these rappers is characters
All of 'em paintin' their face like they got a parade so the people'll carry 'em
They get caught up in the image, they poppin' prescriptions, then we gotta bury 'em
Chasin' these women that's trappin' for likes on the Insta and think we gonna marry 'em
You shootin' it funny, Jamarian, you look through the glass, aquarium
You trollin' and causin' hysteria, welp, this is America
Look, you fit the criteria, see the materials

Look in the mirror, the object is closer than what it appear
You front to world 'cause you scared of your fears

Most underrated, I took me a break, now I'm back and I'm sorry for y'all

Metaphorically, I does that, you don't want that True words, fun fact, I'm only here 'cause I love rap
And you can never have enough cash, little bitch
