

Untouchable

Futuristic

Yo

I was sipping on a bottle before I laid this
With a model that I lay with
A chick that's from Chicago who love me
I couldn't stay with
Just text me once a month and remind me that I'm her favorite
I copy songs from a playlist to paste in our conversation
Perform last night out in Austin, was awesome
It felt like Vegas
Money on the table with smiles, none of that hatred, I'll take it
Blow the dice for tradition not desperation
I hop on that phone right after I smash and call up my main chick, hello (hello)
Maybe it's a cool day, ooh wait
Room service knockin' on the door, hello soufflet
Ooh wait, quickly throw the money in the suitcase
Hustle little mommy in pyjamas squeezing toothpaste
Blueface, hundreds on the counting thats for gas money
Fast money, rappin' pay the taxes with money
Act funny, damn, I'm off the subject rob my back for me
You can phone, send 'em out the door and then I'm back honey

Karma has hit me on invincible
In school I used to wonder my principle
Ms Pennington, if you ain't let that body go you gotta know
The grown Zachary Lewis you should get the dough
Runnin' off of adrenaline and Why ain't no one told me I supposed to stop?
I had a little run-in with the local cops
Throw 'em, stack 'em, back up on the streets before I speak

I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
Mirror on the wall tell me can nobody fuck with you
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
Mirror on the wall tell me can nobody fuck with you

I'm good with words but I'm fucking bad at texting
Since my younger badder lesson, I'm in trouble with expression
I'm done with earth, I don't need another second
I'ma leave here with my girl, if you need us, leave a message
'Cause my heart is a black void, my car is a fast ride
I'm killed by a tabloids, for shit in my past life
Fuck it this all noise, I'm done being chastised
I guess I'm a bad boy, I better get baptized
All of this banter of how I should answer
The rumors is spreading like cancers
Hate me, admit it
You claim to forget but the second I move on you say that you didn't and I did it
I'm just doing me, sick of listening, I
Then I see your tweets to your shit, I am blind
All you do is beef, but I'm vegan tonight
So fuck whoever eats up your lies, I'm Untouchable, fuck with the flow

You judgin' and love to expose and stop by the summers ago
But something you fuckers should know
Cause nothing will ever kill us
I'm rappin' for all the millions
And that kid had nothing to lose from bitches with nothing to give

I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
Mirror on the wall tell me can nobody fuck with you
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
I'm untouchable, feel like I'm untouchable
Mirror on the wall tell me can nobody fuck with you
