

You Outta Know

Futuristic

Yo, yeah
You outta know that I'm still planning to marry you
Walk into that big new house, I probably carry you
Honeymoon and all that
Look in your eyes, stare at you
When you sick I'll make you some soup and go get you Theraflu
I care for you, you know that
Sorry if I don't show that
I know I'm on the road but look forward to when I go back
Take you to the movies, get you popcorn and Sno-Caps
You're scared of your emotions but please baby don't hold back
I know that it ain't easy, though, you gotta believe me
So sick of the club I rather kick it watching TV shows
With your head on my chest apply it strong so you can see the snow
Fly you out from time to time just so you can see the show
You be the show, take it off
We'll hit the bottle 'til the drink is gone and Imma make it strong
You outta know that my intentions is the same
Forget the fame, I still wanna give you my last name

You outta know
Every time I'm on the road I can't wait 'til I get back home
You outta know
Even though you gone I take your picture everywhere that I go
You outta know
Imma protect you, girl, 'cause that's what big brothers do
You outta know
You outta know
You outta know
You outta know

You outta know I keep your picture in my luggage
Take it out and talk to you when I feel sluggish
I'm stressed out, wish I could call you when I be bugging
Come home and get some dinner
The way you cooking, I love it
So grandmama rest your soul
I cried as I wrote this verse
I paused in the moment to finally let it go
But keep you in my heart, I'm glad I got to let you know
That even when you not on this Earth I'm never left alone
I think about how we would talk and you would laugh
You made fun of my dumb brothers, them stupid asses
You never knew my raps and hated when my pants sagged
I always did it on purpose just to make you mad
We would walk to the laundromat every single week
And hit the Stake n' Shake
And you'd bake a cake when we finished eating
You outta know I think about you every day
It makes me sad you had to go, I really wish you could've stayed

You outta know
Every time I'm on the road I can't wait 'til I get back home
You outta know
Even though you gone I take your picture everywhere that I go
You outta know
Imma protect you, girl, 'cause that's what big brothers do

You outta know
You outta know
You outta know
You outta know

You outta know I'm super proud of you
Girl, you smart as hell
Everybody can see it, it ain't that hard to tell
You do the best you can ignoring when your mama yelling
Now that you driving make sure you fasten your seatbelt
It's crazy I watched you grow up in front of me
It sounds cliché but you can be anything that you wanna be
We gon' hit that sauce dance, something like we always do
Plus I'll take you anywhere that you ever wanna see
We might have to talk though, I've heard what you've been doing
I understand that I've been there, but don't do nothing stupid
Them boys will tell you anything to make you fall in love
Then when they hit you'll be the chick that they say they through with
I can't believe it but now college is getting there
Don't let no drugs or no ignorant boys interfere
You outta know you got a good head on your shoulders
I'm just here to support you and make you do what you supposed do

You outta know
Every time I'm on the road I can't wait 'til I get back home
You outta know
Even though you gone I take your picture everywhere that I go
You outta know
Imma protect you, girl, 'cause that's what big brothers do
You outta know
You outta know
You outta know
You outta know
