

I fell so hard
You look at me, I fall apart
Gotta make a move cos I want
To be more than just your friend

You say that you want
Somebody who can hold your heart
We can take it slow cause I want
To be more than just your friend

I can be romantic
Anything you wanted in a man
Girl I'll keep you guessing
Just give me a chance cause you know

That it'll never be enough, enough, enough
Until you give me all your love, your love, your love
Girl you're the only one that's worth to push the shove
Gotta be more than just your friend

Cos you're the half to my whole
I'm Mister A to Z sugar, I'm yours
You're such a mystery and I want
To be more than just your friend

I can be romantic
Anything you wanted in a man
Girl I'll keep you guessing
Just give me a chance cause you know

That it'll never be enough, enough, enough
Until you give me all your love, your love, your love
Girl you're the only one that's worth to push the shove
Gotta be more than just your friend

Girl it'll never be enough, enough, enough
Until you give me all your love, your love, your love
Girl you're the only one that's worth to push the shove
Gotta be more than just your friend
