

Letting Go

Gabrielle

I'm letting go,
Cos' I let you take over,
My heart, my soul,
I will forever,

Every day I find a way to cope,
All my obsessions, all my pain, I'm letting them go..

Now I'm letting go,
Of all the memories,
All the pain you caused,
You were haunting me,
Cos I been missing you,
And I been loving you,
For far too long...

My peace of mind,
Is what matters,
I can make it happen,
To live my life,
I must try,
To leave the past behind...

There's nothing left of us for me to hold,
Now the time is right, I've got, I've got to move on...

Now I'm letting go,
Of all those memories,
Of the pain you thought,
You were haunting me,
Cos I been missing you,
And I been loving you,
For far too long,
You should know I'm,
I'm letting go,
Of all the tears you caused,
All the pain I felt,
Every time that you were near,
Cos I been missing you,
And I been loving you,
For far too long...

I've wasted time,
But I've found my freedom,
Now that it's mine,
It's time that you were leaving...

All my panic, all my fears: I let them go,
No more excuses, no more tears: I'm in control...

Now I'm letting go,
Of all those memories,
Of the pain you thought,
You were haunting me,
Cos I been missing you,
And I been loving you,
For far too long,

Don't you know I'm,
I'm letting go,
Of all the tears you caused,
All the pain I felt,
Every time that you got near,
Cos I been missing you,
And I been holding on,
For far too long...

Don't you know I'm letting go,
Of the pain you caused,
Cos I been loving you,
I've been missing you,
For far too long...
