

Crush

Gaia Epicus

Here we go, it has begun
This is the place for the final run
Today we see who's the best of all
This is the battle where they will fall

Who's side are you on this time?
Make a choice and follow

Hold on to the strongest one
If you let him go you might lose it all
Pushed back against the wall
It is time to wake up and to crush them all
You make a plan, you make a choice
You hear a loud and screaming noise
It's time to run, it's time to hide
And then attack from the other side
Crush!
