

Give It Away

Gaither Vocal Band

Now, he was working in his garden
when i happened by.
He weved me over with that look in his eye and started breaking off some ears of corn.

He said, "Here, boy, today this corn is just right.
"Boil it up for yor supper tonight
" 'cause I've learned it's true what my pappy used to say.
Nothing's quite as good until you give it away."

If you want more happy than your heart will hold,
If you want to stand taller, if the truth were told, take whatever you have
and give it away.

If you want less lonely and lot more fun
and deep satisfaction
when the day is done, throw your heart widw open
and give it away

There's been a lot of water gone over the dam since that day in the garden with my Uncle Sam.
so I hope You'll hear these words I have to say.

There are two kind of folks, There's takers and givers.
There's gripers and complainers and bighearted livers.
It depends on how we choose to spend our days.

'Cause we can hoard up all we've got or give it all away
