

Not Gonna Worry

Gaither Vocal Band

I'm not gonna worry, I'm not gonna fret.
I'm not gonna speculate or contemplate what hasn't happened yet
I'm not gonna worry, He's got the whole thing in His hands.

I won't let it haunt me, I won't let it win.
I'm not gonna ruminate or meditate on how it might have been.
I'm gonna release it, He's got the whole thing in His hands.

Maybe lately I've started to resign,
But here it goes, God only knows
It might just ease mind.
I'm not gonna worry, I'm not gonna fret,
I'm just gonna wait and see and in between give thanks for what I get.
I'll live in the moment, He's got the whole thing in His hands.

He's got the whole thing in His hands.
He's got the whole thing in His hands.
