

You Amaze Me

Gaither Vocal Band

I watched the morning sun light the sky
You held creation as it came to life
You amaze me
Oh Lord, you amaze me
I watched the ocean crash against the sand
Behind the boundries of your unseen hand
You amaze me
Oh God, you amaze me

When everything was void you were there
Darkness was everywhere
When You spoke the word there was light
You held dust in the hand, gave it breath and called it man
The angels that stood by your side must have cried
You amaze me (holy, holy)

I watched the seasons as they come and go
A field of flowers to a field of snow
You amaze me (You amaze me)
Oh You, amaze me
I watched a mother hold a newborn child
That looked like Mama with a Daddy's smile

You amaze me
Oh God, you amaze me

When everything was void you were there
Darkness was everywhere
When You spoke the word there was light
You held dust in your hand, gave it breath and called it man
The angels that stood by your side must have cried
You amaze me
Holy, holy (holy holy)

When everything was void you were there
Darkness was everywhere
You spoke the word, there was light
You held dust in your hand, gave it breath and called it man
The angels that stood by your side must have cried
You amaze me
Oh oh oh
Oh, You amaze me (holy holy)
You amaze me (oh oh)
You amaze me (oh oh oh)
Lord, You amaze me
