

No More Light

Galadriel

so distant thoughts - so empty worlds filling up my mind - from mouth of slaves so canting cries - so shameless crying out the tears of false and lying wisdom - take my soul a side

see, the world is going down and you'll be free fearless lying in blood at (the) battlefield lost among the chaotic souls around there's no way to reach the paradise

REFR.:

the time has turned off the light you see your messiah helpless nailed alone to the cross, you see there's no more light it's time for dying, fallen ones flying

you see your messiah helpless nailed alone to the cross,

so inert essences - dying alone (the) rays of black sun burn - reminder of life so much sentences - so cruel but right desert bones are buried in the dust and smoke - the time of who re's son ends

see, i'm standing amid the ruins of lying age now you know - the fate has turned (your) last page
