Show me your secret diamonds now in the darkness of the night

We're lost somewhere in the deep of world where's no sun and no monlight

Feel me deep, feel me free in your sanctuary of erotic dreams and cries

Planet Earth's burned down but your eyes remind me the rise of the morning sun

I feel your burning sweat, be mine
I hear your silent sighs
...Sex In The Underworld
We're filling us with new age love
We are burning in our sins...
... Sex In The Underworld!

Dark noise of mashines in the underworld bring us background for our dreams

The touch of your lashes like of butterfly and your fragile tears drops your skin

I love you in fire and extasy, you bring me the pain, you bring me delight
Nothing to see, only your body screams, fill me deep, fill me with the rain inside
