

With Sympathy

Galneryus

Is there the end□ Days of the fight...
(But) I have the justice I'll win the day□
And I met them They who fight
Struggling for freedom Never run away

Blood, Sweat, Many tears
The sword which was damaged
We understand each other in the fight
Promise□ Keep going forward and go□

Look up at the sky And I pray
My fight'll be over I'll win the day□

Rage, Pain, Many fears
The fist which was damaged
We understand each other in the fight
Take an oath□ Keep going forward and go□

So we unite Open the future
My mind with their mind
Cry of my soul Cry of their soul
When I fell them something new was born
(I) can't go back from here Overcome all difficulties
(I) can't stop keep moving Do not forget my faith
Nothing can disturb me until the end of my life
Nothing can hinder me until the end of my life

Blood, Sweat, Many tears
The sword which was damaged
Crush, March, Many years I have a lot of courage
Rage, Pain, Many fears The fist which was damaged
We understand each other in the fight
Promise□ Keep going forward and go more□

So we unite Open the future
My mind with their mind
Cry of my soul Cry of their soul
When I fell them something new was born
(I) can't go back from here Overcome all difficulties
Without giving up I do not take a rest
(I) can't stop keep moving Do not forget my faith
Without getting down Overcome all difficulties
Nothing can disturb me until the end of my life
Nothing can hinder me until the end of my life
