

Hear Me Calling

Gamma Ray

I'm high over mountains
I conquer the stormy seas
I'll capture your fortress
Bring you down on your knees
I'm living the dream
Break the chains of oppression from you
In the Land of the Free
I am calling for you
I might come with thunder
I might come with rain
The choice's not given
I will master your pain
The edge of a dream
See the glimpse of a new horizon
Life is not what it seems
Oh, can't you see
Hear me calling on the wind
Can't you feel the change begins
Hearts of truth will freedom bring
I'm calling on the wind
Hear my prayer
Where's the saviour
Voice of anger will echo with force
Watch the sunrise
Taste of freedom
Heart is bleeding
I ride through the eye of the storm
Hold on to your dreams
Say farewell to the grand illusion
Blinded eyes never see
In the Land of the free
Hear me calling on the wind
Can't you feel the change begin
Hearts of truth will freedom bring
I'm calling on the ...
Hear me calling on the wind
Can't you feel the change begin
Hearts of truth will freedom bring
I'm calling on the wind
On the wind
On the wind
