

To Mother Earth

Gamma Ray

Hey, this world's a dying planet nothing matters, nothing's won I have come to seek revenge for all that you have done Hate and fear, eternal sadness nothing matters, no one cares I am here to stop the madness free you from despair Once I heard the white dove sing it was the sound of peace beauty dies in agony
crushed under debris
She was so beautiful
she was a dream
and when I cry for her
I hear them scream..
No respect, no heart for nature led by greed they tear our soil ripped, the sky, the damage major the air is at the boil Here create another wasteland on and on 'til nothing's there here it comes, the devastation poisoning the air Once I saw the eagle fly
it was the sound of peace
beauty dies in agony
crushed under debris
She was so beautiful
I hear them scream..
You were so beautiful
you were a dream
all we shall heed the call
shall be redeemed
She was so beautiful
I hear them scream..
Oh Mother Earth
You were so beautiful
just like a dream
all we shall heed the call
shall be redeemed
Yeah!
