

Did Dat

Gary Clark Jr.

Ooh ooh yeah
Ooh ooh yeah
Ooh ooh yeah, yeah
Ooh ooh yeah, hey, yeah
Baby, huh

I see you, in the corner acting like you don't wanna be noticed
I believe you, when you say got a man at home
He's up waiting on you, huh

But I think you're beautiful
I want you to know you're more than you know
I want you to spoil you and give you my all
Baby, you are flawless, and I think you deserve it all
We all know

You did that, on purpose
You came in and drop my guard
You did that, on purpose
Conversation was on par
You did that, on purpose
Blue jean, white shirt, no bra
You did that, on purpose
You deserve a round of applause, baby (wait)
A standing ovation

French braids, lips of natural shape
Multicolor eyes and shape of almonds
You are your own, you set that bar
Baby, you are a star
You wanna start it off, you just raise the bar

I think you're beautiful
I want you to know you're more than you know
I want you to explore you and give you my all, yeah
Baby, you are flawless, and I think you deserve it all
We all know

You did that, on purpose
You came in and drop my guard
You did that, on purpose
Conversation was on par
You did that, on purpose
Blue jean, white shirt, no bra
You did that, on purpose
You deserve a round of applause, baby (wait)
A standing ovation

Baby, I've been patient all night
So don't keep me waiting, alright
All I want is the light
Light me up and keep me in rotation

'Cause I think you're beautiful
I want you to know you're more than you know
I want you to explore you and give you my all
Baby, you are flawless, and I think you deserve it all

And we all know

You did that, on purpose
You got my mind going in circles, yeah
Ooh, you make me nervous
You did that on purpose
You gon' all be worth it girl
Just light me up, keep in rotation

Yeah, ah
Hahaha, yeah, I see you girl
Hahaha, huh, little fine ass
Come on, yeah...
