

Low Down Rolling Stone

Gary Clark Jr.

Something's going on with me
I'm not who I used to be, nah
Reached point where darkness is my comfort zone
I know it's not what you came here for

So fly like an eagle
Go be beautiful and free girl

'Cause I'm better off on my own
Go save your soul
You don't wanna go where I go
I'm just a low down rolling stone
Barely hanging on

I'm just a low down rolling stone
I'm barely hanging on

Please help me ease my mind
Please help me ease my mind

Temptation's got a hold of me
I'm not where I'm s'posed to be
You're only here for the thrill, it's not where you belong
I know I'm no one you can depend on

So fly like an eagle
Go be beautiful and free girl

'Cause I'm better off on my own
Go save your soul
You don't wanna go where I go
I'm just a low down rolling stone
I'm better off on my own
Go save your soul
You don't wanna go where I go
I'm just a low down rolling stone
Barely hanging on

Here you come, bringin' your flowers again
There you go, in the clouds again
There you go, making rounds again

And I'm only gonna bring you down

So I'm better off on my own
Go save your soul
You don't wanna go where I go
I'm just a low down rolling stone

You don't wanna go where I go baby, no
