Everything Comes Down to This

Gary Numan

This isn't easy but it's what I believe Something is broken and twisted and pushes away No one is listening, what have we done? I feel the empty of darkness and lonely again.

I don't know how this is going to end I don't know how this is going to change I don't know how this is going to feel But everything comes down to this

Nothing is easy and no one is calm Love is a stranger that hides in the corner of sane So much unspoken, words left for dead All I can hear is the screaming of someone to blame.

I don't know how we let this go so far I don't know how we let love turn to pain I don't know how we let things fall apart But everything comes down to this

I don't know how this is going to end
I don't know how this is going to change
I don't know how this is going to feel
But everything comes down to this

I don't know how we let this go so far I don't know how we let love turn to pain I don't know how we let things fall apart But everything comes down to this
