

Eternal Sin

Gates of Ishtar

I feel much colder in my heart and soul
My wrath is growing stronger every day
I am the shadow in every night
I am the demon, born of black and raised in hate

My eyes are bleeding those crimson tears
My kingdom is calling stronger every day
I am the silence in every night
I am the demon waiting for the dawn to come

I'm at the gates of eternal sin
My kingdom come, my will be done
I'm at the gates to eternal sin still waiting for the dawn to come

I scream in silence of pain and fear
There's no salvation for all my sins
The storm is coming, the dawn of flames
I walk the darkness waiting for the dawn to come
