Here at the party everone's happy Everyone's high Get struck by lightning Who here would feel it? Who here could heal it? Who here would try? Chemical-party-lover down It's not the walls It's not this town You're just too high to see the point You think your name is pass the joint I think I like you But you like this whole room You sexy machine I'm jing-a-linging from here to the ceiling Inside I'm reeling So fresh and so clean Chemical-party-lover down It's not the walls It's not this town You're just to high to see the point You think your name is pass the joint You're still too amazing to ignore But I'm incapable of rescuing you You find it too damn easy to get bored That's why you're always trying something new And then when you can't hold up They're all over you Flies on cake, flies on cake Chemical-party-lover down It's not the walls It's not this town You're just to high to see the point You think your name is pass the joint Chemical-party-lover down It's not the walls It's not this town I'm just too drunk to make my point But you think your name is pass the joint You think your name is pass the...
