

Pale skin lifeless eyes
Blood running From their mouths
Gaping wounds Scabs and sores
Skin hanging From their bones

I am alone
No one can see me
No one knows
The darkness within me

Death is what I love
Its sinister rituals
The dead are in my mind

Night falls Life drains
On my altar Life ends

Death is what I love
Its sinister rituals
The dead are here with me
