

Desperation.
Tomorrow's world
Still unknown
We all want the roses
without the thorns.

Desperation.
Tomorrow's world
Still unborn
And there is no escape
From the pains or wrongs.

Imagination.
A world rebuilt by love
Where people care
The world becomes a home.

Imagination.
A world rebuilt by love
Where pains are shared
Together as well as the joys.

Inspiration.
I've got to love and live this way
It's my chance
To change the world in me.

Inspiration.
I've got to love and live this way
It's my chance
To change the world in me and all around
