

Reach Inside

Gen Rosso

A question of timing
A shot in the darkness
The smallest burning ember
Can start the greatest fire
A burning fire
Burning down forests
A very simple thought can Invade the world's surface

Pages are turning
A moment is timeless
Another step ahead now
Could lead you to the sun
A fading sunset
Millions of stars
Another fallen tear drop
Showers endless smiles

Reach inside you set your freedom free
Loosen laces that won't let you be Reach inside you reach so deep inside
Tear the roots of hatred from your crying heart

This moment is a precious pearl within your hands

A flash and it's over
The crack of a whisper
A taste of pure water
Could lead you to an ocean
A dying seed
Fields of gold
The voice of one soul draws
An infinite formation

Reach inside you...

Higher inside you
higher inside
set your freedom free
fly higher
