

I Love You More Today

Gene Pitney

I love more today than I loved you yesterday
Each time you ask me darling
How much I care for you
I simply tell you darling every time you do

I love more today than I loved you yesterday
But I must confess that I love you less
Than I'll love you tomorrow

And should I ask you darling
How much you care I pray
That these will be the words dear
I will hear you say

I love more today than I loved yesterday
But I must confess that I love you less
Than I'll love you tomorrow
I must confess that I love you less
Than I'll love you tomorrow
