

Lonely Night Dreams

Gene Pitney

From lonely night dreams of faraway arms
It's time for me to be waking

Each night 'til they play reveille
Sweetheart I dream only of you
And then I cry when I think of your last letter
And it hurts knowing you haven't been true

From lonely night dreams of faraway arms
It's time for me to be waking
I tried to forget as I march in the rain
That my poor heart is surely breaking

Your picture on the wall is signed
"Your the only one and only guy"
And those warm, tender words kept me going
And now I don't have one thing left in this world

From lonely night dreams of faraway arms
It's time for me to be waking
