Did You Hear the Rain?

George Ezra

Em
Did you hear the thunder?
Em
Or the rain?
C              G          Em
Means Im coming home again
C              G            Em
Means Im coming home my friend

Em
Did you steal my name?
Em
Oh, you Jack of all trades
C       G         Em
Youre the master of none
C       G         Em
Oh, the race has begun
C       G         Em
I was born a champion
C       G          Em
I was born to jump and run

C              G
Did you hear the rain?
G       D     D
Oh, the rain?
C         G      Em
You can try & run & hide
C         G      Em
Tearing at the chain
C         G    Em
Oh, Lucifers inside

Did your siblings tell you
I was wasting up your time
Oh, now youre wasting mine
You put me back in line
And Im counting every link
And I guess you think thats fine

Did you hear the rain?
Oh, the rain?
You can try & run & hide
Tearing at the chain
Oh, Lucifers inside

Oh, did I send a shiver
Down your spine?
Well I do it all the time
Its a little trick of mine
Did I make you shake your knees
Did I make him spill his wine
Lord, Im spreading like disease
Lord, Im all up in your mind
Oh, Lucifers inside
Lucifer's inside

Did you hear the rain?
Oh, the rain?
You can try & run & hide
Tearing at the chain
Means Im coming home again
Means Im coming home my friend
Oh, Lucifers inside
Oh, Lucifers inside
Oh, Lucifers inside.

Did you hear the rain?
Oh, the rain?
You can try & run & hide
Tearing at the chain
Means Im coming home again
Means Im coming home my friend
