

I Ain't Got No Business Doin' Business Today

George Jones

Well, I ain't got no business doin' business today
'Cause my little woman wants to stay home and play
And right here in her arms is where I will stay
No, I ain't got no business doin' business today.

Well, I'm a-gonna call my boss and tell him I'm I'll I'm gonna tell him I'm home a-with the fever and chill
I don't usually lie but for your lovin' I will I need your.

No, we won't be disturbed because the phones off the hook
And when it comes to lovin' baby, you wrote the book
And I just saw that I want your look
That's all it took. (all it took.)

Well, I ain't got no business doin' business today
Well, my little woman likes to stay home and play
And right here in her arms is where I will stay
No, I ain't got no business doin' business today.

(No, he ain't got no business doin' business today.)

Well, the phones at the plant, the punchin' the clock
If you could see 'em now, oh, what a job
But they'd the same if they had what I got Please don't stop. (don't stop)

Well, I ain't got no business doin' business today
Well, my little woman likes to stay home and play
And right here in her arms is a where I will stay
No, I ain't got no business doin' business today.

(Whoo woo woo.)

Well, I ain't got no business doin' business today
My little woman likes to stay home and play
And right here in her arms is where I'm gonna stay
No, I ain't got no business doin' business today.

(Business, busuness)

Oh honey, I ain't goin' to town at all
I'm gonna stay right here at home
In your lovin' arms...
