

I Can't Get Over What Lovin' You Has Done

George Jones

This mornin' waking up to you has changed my day forever
And I could jump right up and kiss the sun
Hmm, loving you just has to be the nearest thing to heaven
I can't get over what loving you has done.

Is it really me and you lyin' here together
And more an more of this is yet to come
If having to much love for you could be it would be never
I can't get over what loving you has done.

I just don't know what to do I feel so good all over
And where is such a feeling coming from Umm, I'd love to take your hand and run across a field of clove r
I can't get over what loving you has done.

l with George humming along to fade