

You Always Look Your Best (Here In My Arms)

George Jones

You look good in anything you choose to wear
Even a trace of gray would look good in your hair
And you look fine in sunshine baby or the shadows of a storm
But you always look your best here in my arms.

You look good when you sit and rock our baby
You look great the perfect picture of a lady
And you look fine with your smile so angel soft and sunshine warm
But you always look your best here in my arms.

We look good walking together
And we feel so good holding each other
I'm depending on your tender love to keep me safe and warm
Yes, you always look your best here in my arms.

I'm depending on your warm and tender love to keep me strong
And you always look your best here in my arms
