

I'm in Love Again

George Morgan

Not so long ago I had my poor heart broken
I said crazy heart see what a fool you've been
Now I've met you and although we've barely spoken
I hear wedding bells and I'm in love again

I'm in love again and wedding bells are ringing
I'm so happy I'm afraid this dream might end
Live each day as though the last my heart keeps singing
I hear wedding bells and I'm in love again

[Instrumental Break]

When she left me I was sure my world had ended
And I couldn't even speak to our friends
And then just as my poor heart was getting mended
I hear wedding bells and I'm in love again

I'm in love again and wedding bells are ringing
I'm so happy I'm afraid this dream might end
Live each day as though the last my heart keeps singing
I hear wedding bells and I'm in love again
