

Where We're Going

Gerry Cinnamon

Can I get back to my loneliness
I don't know what to do with all the happiness that you're giving me
Lately
You know that I can turn my hand to anything
But it seems that in the end I fuck up everything and it's killing me
Slowly

Endless time, love
There'll be another place for you and me
Endless time, love
And nothing really matters, really
I hope one day, love
You can open up your eyes and you will see
It's only destiny
Where we're going this shit don't matter

La-la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la-la

La-la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la-la

Hanging 'round the places that I shouldn't be Taking no shit and making enemies like I gotta be
Fucking crazy
Rolling in directions that I don't believe
Pretending that I'm someone that I'll never be
I will never be
I could never be

Endless time, love
There'll be another place for you and me
Endless time, love
And nothing really matters, really
I hope one day, love
You can open up your eyes and you will see
It's only destiny
Where we're going this shit don't matter

This shit don't matter
Where we're going this shit don't matter
This shit don't matter

Tryna get back to my loneliness
I don't know what to do with all the happiness that you're giving me
Lately
You know that I can turn my hand to anything
But it seems that in the end I fuck up everything and it's killing me
Slowly

Endless time, love
There'll be another place for you and me
Endless time, love
And nothing really matters, really
I hope one day, love
You can open up your eyes and you will see
It's only destiny
