Mormon Island (Alluvial Au)

Giant Squid

The found gold here but they never found me Underneath the temple on main street Where men spent their dust and one took my life In a town where two rivers collide I'm still here After the fire but before the water They made sure to leave no one on the bottom All the graves were lifted to higher ground But where I lay they never found I'm still here

The found gold here but they never found me Underneath the temple on main street Where men spent their dust and one took my life
