

Hey little girl, it's not that bad, I said some things I know I shouldn't have
But they're just the careless words of a jealous man
Hey little girl, can't you see
Thru the tears in your eyes, what you're doin' to me
I won't share your love, oh don't you understand
But you've still got time to change your mind
So won't you stay 'til the end, don't walk away tonight
I won't give you up, I'm gonna stand here and fight
Won't you stay 'til the end, forget about the past
'Cause I know our love will last
Hey little girl, can you still recall
When it was just you and me with our backs to the wall
We could take on the world because our hearts were strong
Hey little girl, you say things have changed
But I say they're just part of love's growing pains
You gotta fight for who you want, fight for who you love, oh ye ah

'Cause it's a long way home when you're all alone
So won't you stay 'til the end, don't walk away tonight
I won't give you up, no, I'm gonna stand here and fight
So won't you stay 'til the end, forget about the past
I'll never let you down, I'll always be around baby
I'll never leave you lonely, cryin' for love
(Instrumental break)
Oh you still got time, still got time to change your mind
Don't let it fall, fall apart, baby, search your heart
So won't you stay 'til the end, don't walk away tonight
I won't give you up, I'm gonna stand here and fight
Won't you stay 'til the end, forget about the past
'Cause I know our love will last
And won't you stay 'til the end, I need you here tonight
Oh baby, make it right
Stay...
