

Love How You Leave Me

Gilbert O'Sullivan

A lovely morning without regret
No question either the older I get
Love how you leave me
Leaving me, love you more

The lengths you go to to make me smile
It's how you do it that makes it worthwhile
I love how it leaves me
Leaving me love you more

I can't imagine bliss
Without a kiss
To help it on its way
As for other parts
If it's from the heart
That's the [?] I'm running to play

It might something I might have said
Despite the times when [?]
Love how you leave me
Leaving me, love you
Love how it leaves me
Leaving me, love you more

You don't go overboard
The things you [?]
It's just that all the time
When you find your rues
For there's a noose
It's enough to drive you out of your mind

The way you look in the dead all night
The morning till you [?]
Love how you leave me
Leaving me, love you
Love how it leaves me
Leaving me, love you
Love how you leave me
Leaving me, love you more

And the more I think about it
Who will be my shining star
Who will be there when that star blows
